Dear Patron,

An A-WOW International Girls Leadership World Summit experience and education is a great distinction, and we seek to always enhance our position as a leader in the field of young woman's education and leadership. In doing so, we offer superior mentoring, esteemed staff that use both innovative and traditional educational resources as well as advanced technology and a wealth of leadership training and mentoring programming.

A-WOW International Girls Leadership Initiative fosters an environment in which each young woman can discover and reveal her unique voice. Our A-WOW young woman's thrive as they explore the far edges of their capabilities as students, leaders, scientists, artists, friends and citizens in an ever-changing world. They are challenged and nurtured to become their best selves and to make meaningful contributions to their local communities.

It takes the foresight of loyal supporters to provide this truly extraordinary experience for our A-WOW International Young Woman's. Joining a Sponsoring Partnership with A-WOW ensures our place as one of the finest organizations anywhere. You will touch the lives of countless young woman's and staff and will help continue our tradition of excellence. Thank you.

Very truly yours,

Carolyn Wright
